O.S.M.T.H. Sweden Grand Chapter

Yet again a Grand Chapter in Grand Priory of Sweden has been carried through, this time with a major element of "international relations". As a co-organiser I would like the reader to judge how well we succeeded (or failed). I'm not a man of few words... but this time I will let my pictures tell the story.

Weather conditions, clear blue sky and +7°C.

Grand Chapter, conducted by Grand Prior General, MajGen Göran De Geer. We were just under 90 people in the Chapel of Royal Palace of Karlberg (the Palace is approx. 500 years younger than our Order).

The word of our Lord, delivered by our chaplain. In short: Who are you and what do you do when your mantle is in the wardrobe? (One of the best sermons I ever attended).

Thirteen, worldly Knights longed for our Temple's fellowship, water and bread.

Two Grand Priors, two Commanders, thirteen Knights and one Grand Secretary General (behind the camera).

The final formal act... signing the Order Ledger.

Gala Dinner with speeches...

A Knights Templar (in real outfit) reminded us that we are not only a pious Order, but when necessary even exercising the right to defend the weak, oppressed and misfortunate ...regardless of ethnicity and/or religion.

The envoy for Hungary delivers Grand Priory of Hungary's greetings and token of friendship to all Knights Templars in Scandinavia.

Grand Prior of Scotland was invited and preparations were made to make him feel welcome (sadly he couldn't make it...).

The three Priors...

Non nobis, Domine, non nobis, sed nomini Tuo da gloriam

Confraternal greeting
